Customer Review:

With the styles we fish, a centre console is the perfect option! When lure fishing, being able to stand on the forward platform and cast away without any hinderance is a great feature. It adds a game changing element to targeting fish with lures, not only for casting but chasing down fish, which we recently did on our first marlin – sitting up the front and chasing the fish down rather than backing up into the swell. You get the benefit of a full walk around with the stability to boot, with the extended chines and widened gunnels. In my opinion it's the perfect boat!
